Highlights of the Keynote Address

Prof. Dr. Sreenivasulu Senior Professor, National University of Juridical Sciences, West Bengal State inaugurated the session and delivered the keynote address. He explained about the opportunities available in the field of IP in the globalized era as such as world has become global village.

Presidential Remarks

Prof. B.P. Basavanagowda, Principal, in his presidential remarks, stressed the need for such interactive sessions. He appreciated the IQAC and Alumni Association for the initiative and encouraged students to take inspiration from the guest's journey in the legal field.

Participation and Outcome

The lecture was attended by the Director, faculty members, and students of LL.B. The session was interactive, with students raising questions on career opportunities, litigation practice, and judicial services. The programme helped students gain clarity on the transition from classroom to courtroom.

The special lecture was highly informative and motivating. It provided a platform for students to understand the realities of the legal profession directly from a distinguished practitioner. The IQAC's initiative to collaborate with the IPR Cell for such academic enrichment activities is commendable.
